Competition Rules

1. Telephone Entries will be accepted, but completed entry forms, together with entry fees must be handed to the Secretary before staging the exhibits.
2. All exhibits must have been grown by the exhibitor for at least 8 weeks prior to the Show. (Floral art and Children sections excluded from this rule).
3. Objections to an exhibitor or exhibit must be made in writing to the Secretary, not later than 4.30 pm on the first day of the Show. The Secretary reserves the right to inspect any exhibitor's garden in order to determine if an objection is justified.
4. Whenever possible, all exhibits must be named by the exhibitor.
5. The decisions of the judges as to the relative merits of the exhibits staged are final. Prizes may be withheld at the judges' discretion, if they consider an exhibit undeserving of the prize offered.
6. Exhibits and prize cards must not be removed before the time stated in the schedule. Any exhibitor breaking this rule will forfeit any prize money due.
7. The Committee will take every precaution against damage to exhibits staged, but cannot be held responsible for any damage or loss which may occur.
8. The Show Committee is authorised to settle any dispute which may occur, for any matter not specifically covered by these rules.
9. All trophies remain the property of the Society. Holders are required to sign to acknowledge receipt and to keep them in safe custody for 12 months until they are returned to the Society.
10. Exhibitors are requested to clear their exhibits and prize cards at the close of the Show and to clear pots, paper, vases etc. The Society would be pleased to receive any donation of unwanted exhibits which will be sold in the auction of produce at the close of the Show.
11. Handicrafts Classes: Exhibitors will only be allowed to enter an exhibit once, ie. the same exhibit cannot be entered in competitive classes year on year.
